HOLDING ON TO YESTERDAY

HOMECOMING 1975 seemed to be against us this year; it rained, the band didn't come for the dance, and we lost the game. Darlene Cline was crowned by last year's queen, Sue Yost, in the auditorium and her escort, Mallory McDaniel was named king.

American Education Week— November 17-21

Once again, the FTA and its advisors sponsored an interesting American Education Week. A variety of speakers and artists allowed juniors and seniors to leave their English alone for a week.

The week was educational in that students learned from the speaker's different interests and occupations.

BANDWAGON

This year Doctor Dimwitty brought his medicine show to West Rowan. The annual variety show was held November 20 and 21. Set in a western mood, the show was complete with The Dirty Dog Saloon, a jailhouse, and a General Store. A real sheriff was on hand and of course the town drunk made his appearance. Other performers in the Medicine Show were singer Doug Smith, a group of tumblers, and a live Blue Grass Band accompanying the Young Mountain Cloggers.

The show ended with a genuine Can-Can girl routine which closed one of the greatest Bandwagons ever, thanks to the tremendous work of the cast and crew, Mrs. Tarlton, and Mr. Cannon.

Young Mountain Cloggers

Bandwagon marked the beginning of a remarkably talented group of dancers known as the Young Mountain Cloggers. Almost every week of the year they entertained such groups as elementary and junior high school classes, church and civic groups, and the Booster Club auction. They won first prize at the county-wide talent show at North and represented West at the Capitol Square Arts Festival in Raleigh. Shown here are highlights from their Raleigh appearance and a meeting with Rep. Neal Smith at the legislature.

STAIRWAY

West Rowan High School held its annual Junior-Senior Prom on Saturday, April 3, 1976, at the Crystal Lounge on the Catawba College Campus. No one could have asked for better weather. It was sunny during the day and continued to be nice throughout the evening. The entertainment for the Prom was the U.S. Welfare Band from Charlotte, N.C. The theme, "Stairway to Heaven," was carried out with decorations throughout the Lounge. Neely McLaughlin, Master of Ceremonies, introduced Tim Cohen, junior class president, who delivered the welcome, Claude Bruce, senior class president, who delivered the response, and Co-Chairmen of the Prom, Sandra Wooten and Tommy Cuthbertson. Then Neely introduced the members of the Grand March. It was a very enjoyable evening.

TO HEAVEN

At the beginning of the year the NHS went to the Bear Popular Yacht Club in Lake Norman for a picnic. Also Phil Kirk came and spoke to the group on "Youth and politics". They also took a trip to Pineville Dinner Theater to see "Hello Dolly". Then the Spring of the year came and 51 new members were tapped into the NHS. For the final trip of the year they went to the Legislature in Raleigh and were the guest of Neal Smith and Robie Nash.

The National Honor Society

This year West had six students attending the I.Q. Bowl in Greensboro. They came in eleventh place out of forty schools attending. The students who made up our team were (l-r) Mona Avery, Carla Dean, Dale Safrit, Pam Jordan, Alan Wood, and Mark Thompson. Mrs. Sloop and Miss Edmundson were the advisors.

Mark Wetmore won first place in the FFA contest this year. He worked very hard and we are proud to be represented by Mark.

Graduation

West Rowan High School gradu

On the two hundredth anniversary of our country's existence, West Rowan High School graduated 180 seniors to begin, along with the nation, a new venture into the future. With great expectations and a clear understanding of the responsibilities facing them, this years seniors were determined to contribute to the well being of their community, state, and nation in the beginning of the next two hundred years.

Spirit of '76

ates 180 on June 3, 1976

After the invocation by Roger Dale Safrit, the senior class officers spelled out the four things a man must learn to do. Introducing this topic was Walter Ernest Chambers, Jr. Patricia Denise Bailey spoke on "To think without confusion clearly." "To love his fellow man sincerely" was discussed by Charles Preston Barber, and Claude Alan Bruce elaborated on "To act from honest motives purely." Ending the program spoke on "To trust in God and Heaven securely." After the presentation of diplomas, Mona Yvette Avery pronounced the benediction.

Varsity Cheerleaders 76

This year's Varsity Squad was the biggest cheerleading squad in the history of our school. The girls had their share of problems with such a large squad but they always stuck together. These girls cheered faithfully for their team and backed them up whether they won or lost. There will be five seniors leaving this year and they will always remember their last year on the varsity squad. They leave many happy memories and all the luck in the world to next year's Varsity Cheerleaders.

West Rowan Falcon Marching Band

The West Rowan Band worked very hard this year to provide good entertaining halftime shows. Many hours of hard work were put into the shows. Some of the songs performed were, "Nothing from Nothing," "Mercy, Mercy," and "Quejada."

The best halftime show by far was the "Those Were The Days" show, shown at the right. Included in this show were, "Mississippi Mud," "Rock Around the Clock," and "TSOP," among others. This show brought a standing ovation from the fans and proved to the band that the hard work paid off well. The last show was on a Spanish theme and brought the season to a very successful end.

Debbie Atwood—Chief Drum Major

Marcia Harris—Assistant Drum Major

Flaggirls

The Flaggirls were very busy this year trying to provide fans with interesting halftime shows. This involved practice in the summer, after school and at night also. But the hard work paid off. Not only did the fans like the shows, but they gave the organization a standing ovation at one show.

The students also kept busy filling out worksheets, keeping notes, and taking tests.
